

Passenger - Hell Or High Water

tom:

[Refrão]

Was it the trick of the light?
Or a shot in the dark?
Was it hell or high water that broke our hearts?
Was it something I said?
Or just a cruel twist of fate?
Was it hell or high water and is it too late?
Oh, is it too late?
(Em G D C)

[Primeira Parte]

Em
Man, all my life I've been
G
Searching for someone, to show me how it feels to be loved
C
And how to love somebody back

[Pre-Refrão]

Em G
And after stumbling through the years
D
I thought I found you, just to see you fading out into the night

[Refrão]

Was it the trick of the light?
Or a shot in the dark?
Was it hell or high water that broke our hearts?
Was it something you said?
Or just a cruel twist of fate?
Was it hell or high water and is it too late?
Oh, is it too late?

[Segunda Parte]

Em
See, all my life I've been
G
Silently reaching for
D
A hand to hold, to warm the cold. Spark a light,

C
To guide me through, alright?

[Pre-Refrão]

Em
And after stumbling through the years
G
I thought I found you, just to see you fading out into the night
D
[Refrão]

Was it the trick of the light?
Or a shot in the dark?
Was it hell or high water that broke our hearts?
Was it something we did?
Or just a cruel twist of fate?
Was it hell or high water and is it too late?

[Interlúdio]

Em G
Hey, hey
D C
Hey, hey
Em G
Hey, hey
D C
Hey, hey

[Ponte]

Em
Was it a knife in my back?
G
Or a fork in the road?
D
Was it hell or high water that left us alone?
Em
Is it really game over?
G
Is it really checkmate?
D
Was it hell or high water and is it too late?
C
Oh, is it too late?
(Em G D C)
(Em G D C)

[Final]

Em
Was it the trick of the light?
G
Or a shot in the dark?
D
Was it hell or high water that broke our hearts?
C

Acordes

