Intro: Am G C G F
Am G C G F

They say home is where the heart is G C G F
but my heart is wild and free

So am I homeless
G C

Or just heartless?
G C

Did I start this?
G F

Did it start me?

(Am G C G F)

They say fear is for the brave
C G C
Am F C

For cowards never stare it in the eye

So am I fearless to be fearful
C G C
Am F C

Does it take courage to learn how to cry?

So many winding roads
G Am F
G Am F

So many miles to go

(Am G C Am F C)

And oh
C G C Am F C

Oh they say love is for the loving
C G C

Without love maybe nothing is real.
Am F C
C G C

So am I loveless, or do I just love less
Am

I have nothing left to fear
F C
G Am F

So many winding roads
G Am F

So many miles to go

When I start feeling sick of it all
C Am
G F

It helps to remember I'm a brick in a wall
C Am G

who runs down from the hillside to the sea
C Am

when I start feeling that it's gone too far
G F

I lie on my back and stare up at the stars
C Am G

I wonder if they're staring back at me

Oh when I start feeling sick of it all
C Am
G F

It helps to remember I'm a brick in a wall
C Am G

who runs down from the hillside to the sea
C Am

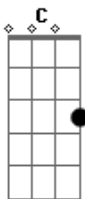

when I start feeling that it's gone too far
G F

I lie on my back and stare up at the stars
C Am G

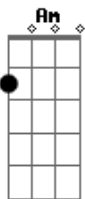

I wonder if they're staring back at me

[Final] C Am G F
C Am G
C Am G
