

Pat Green - Elvis

Tom: A

E
A deep thick plush blue carpet at my feet
A peacock stained glass window staring back at me
D
A nine foot crushed white velvet sofa in the hallway E

E
There's a TV in the kitchen

She's cooking in her panties
Flippin' them little sandwiches likes she's flippin' her hair
D E
Sure is nice to have someone to hold me
Chorus:

G
I'm the king of kings you see
A7
Everything you need
E
Baby, I'm Elvis

baby, baby, I'm Elvis
baby, baby, I'm Elvis

(Ray Benson)

E
I got a hundred golden records in this one room
I got fifty golden knobs upon my doors
D
I got one black twenty-five foot stretch Cadillac to drive you home
To drive you home

(Pat)

E
Downstairs there's a room in the basement
It's mostly made of yellow and black
D
Some folks call it the jungle E
I just think it's a nice place to relax

Chorus:
G
I'm the king of kings you see
A7
Everything you need
E
Baby, I'm Elvis

baby, baby, I'm Elvis
baby, baby, I'm Elvis

Instrumental : G A7 E x2
(Willie)
E
Once a year they all come to see me
I watch them throwing flowers at my toes
D
There's a line that stretches down the driveway
Past my plane, ends at the gift shop E

Chorus:
G
I'm the king of kings you see
A7
Everything you need
E
Baby, I'm Elvis
G
I'm the king of kings you see
A7
Everything you need
E
Baby, I'm Elvis
baby, baby, I'm Elvis
baby, baby, I'm Elvis
G A7 E x2
