

Pat Green - I'm Tired

Tom: F
Intro: Em A Em A

Em A
We must be headed in the wrong direction
Em A
Cause there's nothing but pain out there.
Em A
I heard you say something about the cross upon your back
Em A
But the truth is, baby, life ain't always fair.
Em A
Your whole life is water runnin' down a sidewalk
Em A
You followed the rocks and the cracks as you crawl on the ground.
Em A
I ain't see you smile in so long...
Em A
You must of built a house in the misery you found.

G A D
- I'm tired, I'm tired now
G A Em
Tired of playin' this same old game.
C G Am
You've got to get yourself together,
F D
Say to yourself "I ain't goin' down this way,
Em
I ain't goin' down this way", but I'm tired. -
- REPEAT INTRO -

Em A
Siftin' through your memories deep in the ground with the dead
Em
Maybe you were high on the top of the clouds
A
With the dragon that live in your head.
Em
Maybe you were draggin' your wagon
A
With your thoughts like old wooden toys.
Em
Maybe you were lookin' for somethin'
A
That you lost when you were a boy

G A D
- I'm tired, I'm tired now
G A Em

I ain't goin' down this way" -

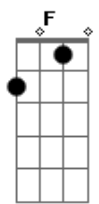

Dm C Bb Dm C Bb
Dm
You eat when you're hungry,
C
You sleep when you're sleepy,
Bb
You drink like there's a hole in your soul.
Dm C
All of your problems are beggin' to leave
Bb A
But you never want to let 'em go, you never want to let 'em go.

G A D

I ain't goin' down this way" -

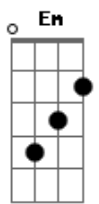

G C D
It's a fine line between livin' it up and losin' it all
G C D
It's a fine line between givin' it up and movin' on
G C D
It's a fine line between livin' it up and losin' it all
G C D
It's a fine line between givin' it up and movin' on
G C
If you stay one more day, babe,
D
Don't you know your gonna die, you're gonna die.
