

Pat Green - Trailer Park Tune

Tom: G

Mardie had a boutique on the corner,
Stanley was a trucker by his trade.

And everytime that Mardie would shake her tail feathers,
Well it would go and make ol Stanley's day.

Well they'd go out bowling every Tuesday,
Down there at the Waco Bare lanes.

They'd roll a couple spares,
Drink a couple beers,
Then it's off to the trailer,
Willie Nelson all the way.

Yeah, life here in the trailer park was fine
And you know that we've been livin' it everyday.
I've got me a goodlookin' woman,
I got me some indoor plumbin'
And I wouldn't have it any other way.

Well the trailer was a sight to see, don't ya know?

Now, Stanley said "Man, doublewide is the only way to go.
You got the hurricane package, tires upon the roof.
Got a satalite dish and coon foil in the window.

Yeah, life here in the trailer park was fine
And you know that we've been livin' it everyday.
I've got me a goodlookin' woman,
I got me some indoor plumbin'
And I wouldn't have it any other way.

Well things sure got a little tight that summer.
Mardie had to take a second job.
Semms money was the answer,
So she became a dancer,
Down there at the local topless bar.

Yeah, life here in the trailer park was fine
And you know that we've been livin' it everyday.
I've got me a goodlookin' woman,
I got me some indoor plumbin'
And I wouldn't have it any other way. - REPEAT CHORUS -
