Em A
There was a girl who loved a biker
Em A
She used to follow him across America
Em A Em A
But the biker didn't like her

G Em A
She didn't care, she still persisted
Em A
Though her brother said she was twisted
Em A Em
And the family said they wouldn't miss her anyway

C C
She loved her biker like an icon
A2 B7 Em
Gazing at his picture everyday
C C
She loved her biker like an icon
A2 B7 Em
Slowly watching precious water drip away

SOLO: Em A Em A

She did her best to fix a meeting
She pulled it off one night in Hollywood

When he met her he couldn't let her get away

He didn't ask for her permission
He took advantage of her position
But he was always her ambition anyway

She loved her biker like an icon
Gazing at his picture everyday
She loved her biker like an icon
Slowly watching precious water drip away

The family tried so hard to find her
They showed her picture across America
But no trace of her sweet face was ever found

She loved the biker like an icon
Gazing at his picture everyday
She loved the biker like an icon
Slowly watching precious water drip away

C C
She loved the biker like an icon
A2 B7 Em
Slowly watching precious water drip away
She loved the biker like an icon
Slowly watching precious water drip away
