

Paul McCartney - Heaven On a Sunday

```
Solo: Am Dm Am (x 2)
Intro: C G (x 2)
                                                                    Am G
                                                               It's Peaceful, Like Heaven On A Sunday
                                      Am Dm
Peaceful, Like Heaven On A Sunday.
                                                               Wishful, Not Thinking What To Do
Wishful, Not Thinking What To Do
                                                               We've Been Calling It Love
We've Been Calling It Love
                                                               But It's A Dream We're Going Through
                                              \mathsf{Am}
But It's A Dream We're Going Through
                                                                           Gm
                                                               And If I Only Had One Love
            Gm
And If I Only Had One Love
                                                               Yours Would Be The One I'd Choose.
Yours Would Be The One I'd Choose.
                                                                   Gm
                                                               If I Only Had One Love
     Gm
If I Only Had One Love
                                                               Yours Would Be The One I'd Choose.
Yours Would Be The One I'd Choose.
                                                               If I Only Had One Love
                                 Am Dm
Restful, Like Devon On A Monday
                                                               Yours Would Be The One I'd Choose.
Cooling My Fingers In The Bay
                                                               If I Only Had One Love
                                                               Yours Would Be The One I'd Choose.
We've Been Learning A Song
                                                                    Gm
                                                               If I Only Had One Love
But It's A Long And Lonely Blues
                                                               Yours Would Be The One I'd Choose.
If I Only Had One Love
                                                                    Gm
                                                               If I Only Had One Love
Yours Would Be The One I'd Choose
                                                                                            F7
                                                               Yours Would Be The One I'd Choose.
If I Only Had One Love
                                                                   Gm
                                                               If I Only Had One Love
                                          Am
Yours Would Be The One I'd Choose.
                                                               Yours Would Be The One I'd Choose.
If I Only Had One Love
                                                               If I Only Had One Love
                                           Am
Yours Would Be The One I'd Choose.
```

Am

Am

Am

Am

Am

(Am G)

Acordes

