In Penny Lane there is a fireman with an hour glass And in his pocket is a portrait of the Queen He likes to keep his fire engine clean, it's a clean machine

Penny Lane, is in my ears and in my eyes

In summer, meanwhile back

Behind the shelter in the middle of the roundabout The pretty nurse is selling poppies from a tray And though she feels as if she's in a play, she is anyway

In Penny Lane, the barber shaves another customer We see the banker sitting, waiting for a trim And then the fireman rushes in from the pouring rain Very strange

Penny Lane, is in my ears and in my eyes There beneath the blue suburban skies I sit, and meanwhile back
