

Paul McCartney - Why So Blue

Tom: G
Intro:

Am G
Starting from a cradboard castle down and out
Am G D Em
One of life's young students find what its all about
Am D Am D D D
Paper flutters angry taxi drivers shout
Am G
From the pages of a paper candles shine
Am G D Em
On a perfect table laid for two who love to dine
Am D D D
They suggest a highly recommended wine
Am D
Once again the same old line

Cm
Why so sad,
Cm Cm Cm D D D
My, fine, young friend
Gm G
Why so blue

Am G
Weary carriage horses stand in single file
Am G D Em
Someone at a crowded bus stop wears a friendly smile
Am D D D
Touching nerves that no one's heard from in a while
Am D D D
Papers from the same old file

Cm
Why so sad,
Cm Cm Cm D D D
My, fine, young friend
Gm G
Why so blue

Eb
Sometimes when eyes meet
Bb
You know
Eb Bb
They have to meet again

Eb Dm
Sometimes birds of a feather
Dm
Got to fly
Cm Cm Cm
Together oh

Bm A A A
From a dingy attic window candles shine
Bm A Gbm Bm
On a perfect table laid for two who love to dine
Bm E E E
Now they drink the highly recommended wine
Bm E
Free at last and feeling fine

Dm
I'm so glad, (I am so glad)
Dm
My, (It's not so bad)
Dm
fine, (It's not the end)
Dm
young (I am the friend)
E E E friend (I am the friend)
Am
Glad for you

Dm
I'm so glad (I'd be so sad)
Dm
My (It's not so bad)
Dm
fine (It's not the end)
Dm
young (I am the friend)
E E E
friend (I am the friend)
Am Dm
Glad for you

Am Dm
You used to be so blue
Am
You used to be so blue
Dm Am
Why so blue.

Acordes

