

Paul Simon - The Sound Of Silence

Tom: G

Hello darkness, my old friend,
 I've come to talk with you again,
 Because a vision softly creeping,
 Left its seeds while I was sleeping,
 And the visions that was planted in my brain, still remains
 Within the sound of silence
 In restless dreams I walked alone
 Narrow streets of cobblestone,
 'Neath the halo of a street lamp,
 I turned my collar to the cold and damp
 When my eyes were stabbed by the flash of the neon light
 That split the night
 And touched the sound of silence
 And in the naked light I saw
 Ten thousand people, maybe more
 People talking without speaking,
 People hearing without listening,
 People writing songs that voices never share

And no one dare
 Disturb the sound of silence
 "Fools" said I, "You do not know
 Silence like a cancer grows
 Hear my words that I might teach you,
 Take my arms that I might reach you"
 But my words like silent raidrops fell,
 And echoed
 In the walls of silence
 And the people bowed and prayed
 To the neon god they made
 And the sing flashed out is warning,
 In the words that is was forming
 And the sign said
 "The words of the prophets
 Are written on the subway walls
 And tenement halls
 And whispered in the sound of silence.
