

Pearl Jam - Crazy Mary

Tom: A

She lived on the curve in the road, in an old tar-paper shack

On the south side of the town on know wrong side of the tracks

Sometimes on the way into town we'd say Mama, can we stop and give her a ride?'

Sometimes we did, but her hands flew from her side

Wild eyed, crazy Mary

(Bm G)

Down a long dirty road, past the Parson's place

That old blue car we used to race

Little country store with a sign tacked to the side

Said 'No L-O-I-T-E-R-I-N-G Allowed'

Underneath that sign always congregated quite a crowd

Take a bottle, drink it down, pass it around

Take a bottle, drink it down, pass it around

Take a bottle, drink it down, pass it around

One night thunder cracked, mercy backed outside her windowsill

E

Dreamed I was flying high above the trees, over the hills

B

Looked down into the house of Mary

Gb E

A bare bulb on, newspaper-covered walls,

and Mary rising up above it all

B E

Ohhh Ohhh

B E

Ohhh Ohhh

B

Oooohhhhhh

A Abm G Gb

Ohhh Ohhh Ohhh Ohhh

Bm

Next morning on the way into town

G

Saw some skid marks and followed them around

Bm G

Over the curve, through the fields, into the house of Mary

A G

That what you fear the most, could meet you halfway

F G

That what you fear the most, could meet you halfway

Bm A G A

Take a bottle, drink it down, pass it around

Bm A G A

Take a bottle, drink it down, pass it around

Bm A G A

Take a bottle, drink it down, pass it around
