

Tom: A same as before

Mike-standard
Solos are from the Ten songbook
I pulled Mike's chorus part from the Brimli '93 video It is a strange harmony part, and as best as I can tell, is Bridge, Mike what he's playing live. However, I'm not sure so if you have this video or just another idea on this part, feel free to email me or post on the message board.
