C C2 C C2
Hear the sirens
Am A Am A
Hear the sirens
C C2 C C2 Am A Am A
Hear the sirens, hear the circus so profound
C C2 C C2 Am A Am A
I hear the sirens more and more in this here town
G D C Em
Let me catch my breath to breathe then reach across the bed
G D C A
Just to know we're safe, I am a grateful man
G D C Em
This slightest bit of light and I can see you clear, hmm

Am C G
Have to take your hand, and feel your breath

Dm
For fear this someday will be over
Am C G
I pull you close, so much to lose
Dm Em F
Knowing that nothing lasts forever

C G
I didn't care, before you were here

Dm Em F
I danced in laughter with the everafter

C G
But all things change, let this remain

( C C2 C C2 Am A Am A )

C C2 C C2 Am A Am A
Hear the sirens covering distance in the night
C C2 C C2 Am A Am A
The sound, echoing closer, will they come for me next time?
G D C Em
For every choice, mistake I've made, it's not my plan
G D C A
To send you in the arms of another man
G D C Em

And if you choose to stay, I'll wait, I'll understand, huh

Am C G
It's a fragile thing this life we lead
Dm
If I think too much, I can't get over
Am C G
Whelmed by the grace by which we live our lives
Dm Em F
With death over our shoulders
C G
Want you to know, that should I go
Dm Em F
I always loved you, held you high above, true
C
I study your face
Em
The fear goes away
