He puts his hand down into his pocket
Pulls out a rose and hands it to his girl
She says hey man what you doin what you sayin
No, I thought I told you
I don't want you here no more
So go get out of here so I don't see your face
Your the one who used to beat me to love you
                                 Gb
And I don't want you back again

Verso 2:
Many times did you swing that hand
But did you ever see the bruise you used to leave
I'd spend days I could not go out
Sometimes it would weeks
```

So don't come back thinking I'm okay Cause really man, I hate you to the core You're the most gutless thing I've ever known Or ever saw

Refrão: Em Gb G No More No More No More

Ponte: A B C

You can't hide the scars You can't hide the scars

So turn around and just start walking Cause we got nothing left to say When you're gone you can be assured My smile is gonna come back my way And I'll wipe you from my memory So you don't exist in my day But just remember I'll still smell you A thousand miles away
