Intro: 2x: D Em A7Sus4 Em

Sad times go slow well that's understood
When you're gone I slow right down to still
Is it real, is it love or ecstasy
Only with you my veins begin to fill

If we run now we're going to learn today
We can live beyond what we've seen and done
So lock onto your targets and fire at will
We're going to blow this town out now and run

But without you here it wouldn't be the same
All my worlds come crashing in
And without you here I couldn't play this game
I'd be falling down in a spin

If we attack our fears we can achieve greatness
So let's challenge it now and ride it like a storm
There's no time to lose when you've got a life to live

But we only learn this the day a life is gone

But without you here it wouldn't be the same
All my worlds come crashing in
And without you here I couldn't play this game
I'd be falling down in a spin

Ponte 4x: D G A7Sus4 Em

So take this chance and come and ride with me
All the roads we're on now will only lead us blind
Open up hope and chase our destinies
I swear to you now you'll never look behind

But without you here it wouldn't be the same
All my worlds come crashing in
And without you here I couldn't play this game
I'd be falling down in a spin

But without you here it wouldn't be the same
All my worlds come crashing in
And without you here I couldn't play this game
There's no point 'cause there'd be nothing for me to win
