 So you're leaving,
G
                                                           C G F
                                                         No, I can't stop loving you
 in the morning,

                                                         Why should I...
I could say everything's alright,
           G Em7
I could pretend and say good bye.
