[Verse 2]
                                                                   [Bridge 1]
Joy to the world the Savior reigns
                                                                   Joyful joyful we adore Thee
             G Am
Let men their songs employ
                                                                   God of glory Lord of love
While fields and floods rocks hills and plains
                                                                   Hearts unfold like flowers before Thee
Repeat the sounding joy, (Echo: Repeat the sounding joy)
                                                                   Opening to the sun above
Repeat the sounding joy, (Echo: Repeat the sounding joy)
                                                                   [Bridge 2]
