Until now, I've been blind

Until now, I've been wasting time

I've been lost on streets of plenty

I've been tossed on icy seas

And all I've crossed, ain't worth a quarter

It's muddy water, until now

There's a light that shines forever

There's a light that shines for me

There's a light, my footsteps guiding

For I've been hiding, until now
