

Pierce The Veil - Chemical Kids And Mechanical Brides

Tom: Db

(com acordes na forma de C)
Capotraste na 1ª casa

Like a rush

shot through you

Everyone

is watching you

Told you why I see no need for the sun
(I've found a reason to say)

A love you light is a love soon gone

If this is it

Don't bother cause this love is a lie (single)

I'm a chemical kid / You're a mechanical bride

When every vein is red out of the blue

I held a diamond to the sun

To count the moments on account of the way yo-ou

Smile

Smile for me

Oh, we're in slow motion when you

Smile

Smile for me

But oh my God I've been loo--king

But I still hold your breath so you won't leave

Pastel red and porn star white

Ghost on the altar

We breathe don't leave

Say that the night sings alone

And if there's a God

Then I'm letting Him go

All for you

You alone

Raise my hands

At the thought of you leaving me alone

(What if I still care)

Don't torture me or beg me

Can you make me believe in tiring

As you fall fast asleep it reminds me

Of the slow symphonies behind me

(They sing along)

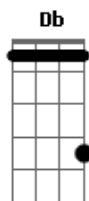

All the nightmares you'll see tomorrow

All the stars on your ceiling they glow

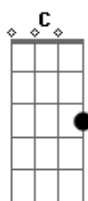

But not for you

Through the trees I'll blo-o-o-o-ow
