

Pierre Simões - Mississippi River

Tom: G

Of so many beauties in this vast and immense cosmos C
 I quote one that amazes me G
 Yeah, there is a river full of life G
 So great and so deep C
 With an incomparable beauty- F
 It is ever present throughout the nation Bb Eb
 And tells so many sad and happy stories Ab Db
 Over the centuries D
 It inspires poets and composers G
 Sung in verse and short stories A
 In voluptuous songs D
 The ancient islanders and historians still remember G C
 Of the many steamboat races G
 They also remember a dangerous killer, G
 Slave trader, C

A horse thief named John Murrell, F
 He had a headquarter on Island 37, Bb Eb
 He was even quoted by Mark Twain, Ab Db
 And if you want to know more of these gorgeous stories Gb B
 Just reach the river's edge and admire it with respect E A
 Mississippi River D
 Father of Waters G
 I am in your presence again D
 Mississippi River G
 Body of a nation D B
 I always miss seeing you D
 As ever, it is charming. E
 Old River full of legends and tales A D B
 Brings full life and happiness E
