

Pink Floyd - Fat Old Sun

Tom: C

(Gilmour)

Intr.: G

G When the fat old sun in the sky is falling
 F Summer evening birds are calling
 G Summer Sunday and a year
 F The sound of music in my ears

G Distant bells, new mown grass smells so sweet
 G By the river holding hands, roll me up and lay me down

C And if you sit, don't make a sound.
 G Pick your feet up off the ground
 C And if you hear as the warm night falls
 Dm The silver sound from a time so strange
 Gm Sing to me, Sing to me

F D G

G When that fat old sun in the sky is falling
 F Summer evening birds are calling
 G Children's laughter in my ears

F The last sunlight disappears
 C And if you sit, don't make a sound
 G Pick your feet up off the ground
 C And if you hear as the warm night falls
 Dm The silver sound from a time so strange,
 Gm Sing to me, Sing to me
