

Pink Floyd - Keep Talking

```
Tom: G
                                                               I'm feeling good now / Why won't you talk to me
   (Gilmour, Wright, Samson)
                                                               But I can't show my weakness / You never talk to me
Tom - Em
Solo: (intro) Parte I
                                                               I sometimes wonder / What are you thinking
Solo: (intro) Parte II
                                                               Where do we go from here / What are you feeling

(parte falada)
For millions of years mankind lived just like the animals
                                                                      Em D Am Em Am Em
Then something happened which unleashed the power of our
We learned to talk
                                                                                        / Why won't you talk to me
                                                                                          Fm
                                                               I feel like I'm drowning / You never talk to me
There's a silence surrounding me
                                                               You know I can't breathe now / What are you thinking
I can't seem to think straight
                                                               We're going nowhere / What are you feeling
