Oh, Oh, Oh, x6

F                   C
Remember me, believe in you
                  Em
All the things I said I'd do
                               Am
I wouldn't hurt you like the world did me
                      F
Keep you safe I'd keep sweet
                    C
Everything that I went through
                           Em
I'm grateful you won't have to do
                         Am
I know that you will have to fall
                        Dm
I can't hide you from it all

                     G
But take the best of what I got
                     Dm
And then you know no matter what
              G
Before you walk away
You know you can

C    Em    Am
Run, run, run,
F
Back to my arms, back to my arms
C    Em    Am
Run, run, run,
F                                            C
Back to my arms, and they will hold you down
Em                      Am    F
   They will hold you down

      F                        C
See, here's the bloody bloody truth
                      Em
You will hurt and you will lose
                        Am
I've got scars you won't believe
                      F
Wear them proudly on my sleeve
                          C
I hope you'll have the sense to know
                        Em
That sadness comes and sadness goes
                        Am
Love so hard and play life loud
                           Dm
It's the only thing to give a damn about
