

Placebo - Ill Be Yours

Tom: A

(com acordes na forma de)

Sleeping With Ghosts, and if you don't have it I suggest you go get it if you consider yourselves a fan, and even if not, its got some real different stuff on it, this is one hell of a progression from last time.

tuning or anything special like that involved, just a nice, simple little riff and a really easy solo at the end. Hell, you don't even need so much as a regular chord.

So this is my first tab, cut me a little slack. Its mostly similar to the other versions out there, but what I'd say is definitely don't use double-picking on the song. Dunno if thats the right technical term or whatnot, but I really would avoid playing this as the following:

8-8-8
