

Placebo - Second Sight

Tom: C

C Em
 Walk away to save your face you never were a genius
 Walk away to save your face you let it come between us
 Walk away to save your face you never were a genius
 Walk away to save your face you never were, you never were
 Walk away to save your face you never were an actor

Walk away to save your face here comes the morning after
 Walk away to save your face you never were an actor
 Walk away to save your face you never were, you never were
 Yes it's just the second night but I would break backsides for you Yes I know you're the jealous type cause I'm cursed with second sight so
 Third verse same as the first
 Walk away, you never were
