

Plus-44 - Lillian

tom:
Intro: F7M Am F7M Am

[Primeira Parte]

The place I used to live made me feel like a tourist
I couldn't co-exist with the cold and suspicious
When the last remaining light was starting to filter
It seemed the perfect time to step into the future

[Refrão]

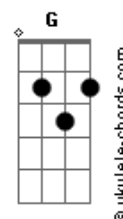

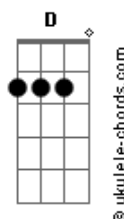

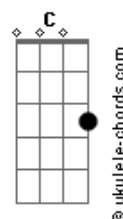

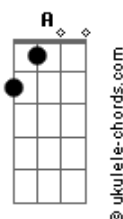

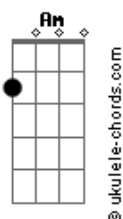

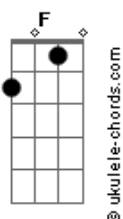

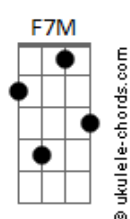

Your heart is a grave to be perfectly honest
Your mouth's a smoking gun
And you smile while twisting the knife in my stomach
Until everything is gone
Take all you can from me I've got weak constitution
I'm lead so easily, so easily
( F7M Am F7M Am )

[Segunda Parte]

I left it all behind in the dead of last winter
I left it all behind, but the question still lingers
So long forgotten friends. No you don't know the difference Between love and submission, and I'm not that obedient

[Refrão]

Acordes

[Ponte]

And she's trying to sleep it off with her head on my shoulder
And I'm trying to keep it out of my thoughts when I hold her (Take all you can from me)

And she's trying to sleep it off with her head on my shoulder
(I'm led so easily)

And I'm trying to keep it out of my thoughts when I hold her
