

The Pogues - Misty Mourning Albert Bridge

Tom: C
Intro: C F G C

I dreamt we were standing
By the banks of the Thames
Where the cold grey waters ripple
In the misty morning light
Held a match to your cigarette
Watched the smoke curl in the mist
Your eyes, blue as the ocean between us
Smiling at me
(C F G C)

I awoke so cold and lonely
In a faraway place
The sun fell cold upon my face
The cracks in the ceiling spelt hell
C

Turned to the wall
Pulled the sheets around my head
Tried to sleep, and dream my way
Back to you again
(C F C F C G)

Count the days
Slowly passing by
Step on a plane
And fly away
I'll see you then
As the dawnbirds sing
On a cold and misty morning
By the Albert Bridge
