C
 And I've been looking for someone to put up with my bullshit
Am
 I can't even leave my bedroom so I keep pouring
F
 And I ain't seen the light of day since, well, that's not important
C
 It's been long

C
 And I was feeling Whitney, me and my homies sip like Houston
Am
 Cars and clothes, thought I was winning, you knew I was losing
F
 You told me to wake up, oh, my clock always stays on snooze
C
 And I'm done
 (C7)

F
 To each their own and found peace in knowing
C
 Ain't always broken, but here's to hoping

F
 Show no emotion, against your coding
C
 And just act as hard as you can
G G7
 You don't need a friend

Boy, you're the man

C
 And I've been looking for someone that I can buy my drugs from
Am
 It seems like every plug ran east to Utah, became Mormons
F
 Drought comes around, feels like I have no one to depend on
C
 Sober, ugh

C
 I had 80 beers on Tuesday night, I had nothing to do with it
Am
 I put on a little Dwight and sang a happy tune
F
 And lit a cigarette, stepped out the door, had an appearance
C
 Drank more
