

Priscilla Ahn - Red Cape

Tom: D

D
I'm alive should have died in a plane crash
G
Four long years ago
D
Lost my hope, couldn't cope
G
With my fear of news on the radio
Em
But I've got a long red cape
G
That's caught in the engine of a plane
D G
That's flying way too low
D G
Yesterday a hurricane had blown away my long red cape
Em A
And I, feel satisfied

D A G A
(vocalizing)

D
I'm in peace, I feel sweetly released
G
From all that I couldn't let go.
D
If I knew, what to do

G
The I guess I'd finally feel anew
Em
But I can't wear my red cape
G
'Cause I would be repeating a mistake
D G
I just gotta let it go
Em A
I just gotta let it go

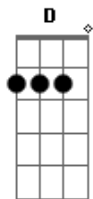

(x2)

D
Yesterday a hurricane
G
Had blown away my long red cape
Em
And I, I, I
G
Feel satisfied (-ied, -ied)

D A G A
(vocalizing)

D G
Yesterday a hurricane had blown away my long red cape,
Em A
And I feel satisfied
