

Procol Harum - Christmas Camel

Tom: Bb

Intro: (descending piano glissando)

piano arr. for guitar {2x: band enters 2nd time}:

Gm Cm Gm Gm Cm Gm

v v v v v v v

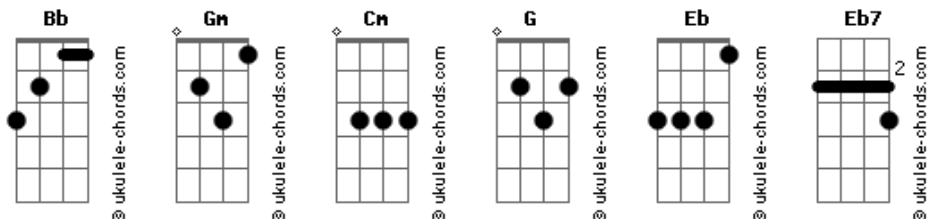

Verse 2:

Gm G Eb Bb
 My Amazon six-triggered bride
 (Bb) Cm Gm
 Now searching for a place to hide
 (Gm) G Eb Bb
 Still sees truth quite easily
 (Bb) Cm Gm
 Shrouds all else in mystery
Cm Eb7 Gm
 While madmen in top hats and tails
Cm Eb7 Gm
 Impale themselves on six inch nails
Bb Gm Cm Gm
 And some Arabian also-ran
Bb Gm Cm Gm
 Impersonates a watering can

{repeat intro w/full band after each verse}

Verse 2:

Acordes

Some Santa Claus-like face of note
 Entreats my ears to set afloat
 My feeble, sick, and weary brain
 And I am overcome with shame
 And hide inside my overcoat
 And hurriedly begin to quote
 And some Arabian sheik most grand
 Impersonates a hot dog stand

Instrumental break:

(guitar solo over verse chords)

Verse 3:

Red Cross ambulance outside
 Could only mean that I must hide
 'Til dusk and finally the night
 When I will make a hasty flight
 Across the sea and far away
 To where the weary exiles stay
 And some Arabian oil well
 Impersonates a padded cell

Coda:

Bb Gm Cm Gm
 And some Arabian oil well
Bb Gm Cm Gm
 Impersonates a padded cell

{repeat intro; end cold on last Gm of 2nd repeat}
