

Procol Harum - Pilgrims Progress

Tom: D

Tabbed by:PJVillanueva

1

I sat me down to write a simple story

which maybe in the end became a song

In trying to find the words which might begin it

I found these were the thoughts I brought along

2

At first I took my weight to be an anchor and gathered up my fears to guide me round but then I clearly saw my own delusion and found my struggles further bogged me down

3

In starting out I thought to go exploring and set my foot upon the nearest road

In vain I looked to find the promised turning but only saw how far I was from home

Middle eight

In searching I forsook the paths of learning and sought instead to find some pirate's gold

In fighting I did hurt those dearest to me and still no hidden truths could I unfold

4

I sat me down to write a simple story

The words have all been writ by one before me

We're taking turns in trying to pass them on

Oh, we're taking turns in trying to pass them on
