Verse 1: D Am G Em I might be at a table and suddenly I'll catch C D G a fleeting vision of her crystal seas Am D Em or I might be standing in a crowded dockyard far away С D G underneath the sun I've never seen Chorus: С G Am For I have seen many worlds for what its worth F Am C G but I'll never see again the planet Earth, my Earth. Verse 2 - Chords as versel:

Acordes

I might be chasing waves of light out towards the rim where the stars are sparse and the cold of space seeps in. Or I might be in a bar room drinking methylated gin and thinking of the places I have been Chorus: Yes I have seen many worlds for what its worth but I'll never see again the planet Earth, my Earth Instrumental: Chorus again: Yes I have seen many worlds for what its worth but I'll never see again the planet Earth, my Earth Verse 3: As for verse 1: Cast adrift amongst the stars ${\tt I}$ float from sun to sun dreaming of the world that gave me birth All the places I have been remind me there is none to match the cool green rolling hills of earth Chorus: Yes I have seen many worlds for what its worth but I'll never see again the planet Earth, my Earth
