

Quiet Riot - Thunderbird

Tom: C

Hello you, yes it's me
 You can't come back, you're flyin' free
 You think you've found everything that you need
 Fly away, fly away
 To your new home, across the seas
 Leave your nest, ooh baby leave the best thing that you've been
 Whoa, whoa whoa
 Fly on, Thunderbird fly
 Fly on, spread your wings to the sky
 Fly on, Thunderbird fly
 On your own, and I'm alone
 In the shadow, of what we've done
 And I can't help but think that someday you'll be back home, whoa
 Fly away, fly away
 To your new home, across the bay

Leave your nest, ooh baby leave the best thing that you've been
 Ohh, ohhhhhh
 Fly on, Thunderbird fly
 Fly on, spread your wings to the sky
 Fly on, Thunderbird fly
 [Solo]
 When all is said, and all is done
 Still I live, and carry on
 Don't look back, but think of me we'll meet again
 Fly away, whoa
 Fly on, Thunderbird fly
 Fly on, spread your wings to the sky
 Fly on, Thunderbird fly
 Fly on, Thunderbird fly
 Fly on, spread your wings to the sky
 Fly on, Thunderbird fly
