

Radiohead - A Punch-up At a Wedding

Tom: G

[Intro:] Em

Em
I don't know why you bother
Nothing's ever good enough for you (by the way)
I was there and it wasn't like that
You have come here just to start a fight

You had to piss on our parade

Bm
You had to shred our big day

Am
You had to ruin it for all concerned

Em
In a drunken punch-up at a wedding

Hypocrite opportunist
Don't infect me with your poison
A bully in a china shop
When I turn around you stay frozen to the spot

You had the pointless snide remarks
Of hammerheaded sharks
The pot will call the kettle black
It's a drunken punch-up at a wedding
