

Radiohead - Creep

```
You're so fucking special
                tom:
{\color{red}G} (forma dos acordes no tom de {\color{red}C} ) Capostraste na 7ª casa
                                                                 I wish I was special
Intro: C E F Fm
                                                                 [Refrão]
[Primeira Parte]
                                                                            C
                                                                 But I'm a creep
When you were here before
                                                                       Е
                                                                 I'm a weirdo
Couldn't look you in the eye
                                                                 What the hell am I doing here?
You're just like an angel
                                                                        Fm
                                                                 I don't belong here
Your skin makes me cry
                                                                 Oh, oh
You float like a feather
                                                                 [Ponte]
In a beautiful world
                                                                 She's running out the door
I wish I was special
                                                                 She's running out
You're so fucking special
                                                                 She run, run, run, run
[Refrão]
                                                                 CEF Fm
                                                                    Run
                                                                 [Terceira Parte]
But I'm a creep
      E
                                                                Whatever makes you happy
I'm a weirdo
What the hell am I doing here?
                                                                Whatever you want
I don't belong here
                                                                 You're so fucking special
                                                                 I wish I was special
[Segunda Parte]
                                                                 [Refrão]
I don't care if it hurts
                                                                            C
I wanna have control
                                                                 But I'm a creep
                                                                       E
I want a perfect body
                                                                 I'm a weirdo
I want a perfect soul
                                                                 What the hell am I doing here?
                                                                          Fm
                                                                 I don't belong here
I want you to notice
                                                                 I don't belong here
       E
When I'm not around
```

Acordes

