

Radiohead - How can you be sure?

```
Tom: E
                                                                  A Abm Gbm E
                                                                  When I'm like this Α
                                                                               Abm
Verso:
                                                                  How can you be smiling, saying
 E B E
                    A2->A
 Seen all good things and bad
                                                                Refrão
 E B E A2
                                                                  E BEA
  running down the hill
                                                                  Ho-o-w can you be sure?
 E B E A
All so battered and brought to the \mathsf{E} \quad \mathsf{B} \ \mathsf{E} \ \mathsf{A}
                                                                  Ho-o-w can you be sure?
      B E A2
 ground
                                                                Verso:
                                                                  If you walk out that door, will I see you again
 E B E
 I am hungry again
E B E A2
                                                                  if so much of me lies in your eyes?
                                                                  I am hungry again, I am drunk again
  I am drunk again
                                                                  With all the money I owe to my friends
      ВЕ
 With all the money I owe to my
                                                                Pre-Refrão
 E B E friends
                                                                Refrão x2
                                                                Refrão (instrumental)
Pre-refrão:
```

Acordes

