

Radiohead - Lull

Tom: F

[Intro:] C

C
You stop the crowd
Bb C
I cried out to break the spell
You wake and smile
Bb C
I just snapped and lost control

C F B C
Distracted by irrelevance
C F B C

The stress and the tension
C F B C Am
The stress and the tension
B C
I'm in a lull

There's nothing more dull
Than talking, talkin about yourself
But what I meant to say
I'm sorry that I lost control

Distracted by irrelevance
The stress and the tension
Crawling through the keyhole
I'm in a lull
