

Radnor & Lee - Still Though We Should Dance

Tom: E
Intro: E

E
Sifting through the rubble of my mispent life
Gbm
No home of my own, no child, no wife
A
Every kind of error and all kinds of strife
B
Days lived in a trance

E
People that I've hurt, more than a few
Gbm
I told a lot of lies 'stead of what was true
A B
Always left the real for the slick and new romance

Still, I'm gonna dance

(A E B)

E
Looking through the pages of my past regrets
Gbm
All the days and weeks I wish I could forget
A
Feeling a disaster but at least well-dressed
B
I always wore the pants

E
Moments I was happy, though I can't deny
Gbm
Burned a lot of bridges and I don't know why
A B
Gotta face the music, 'cause it might be my last chance

No choice but to dance

(A E B)
(Gbm A E B)

(A E B)

E
As my stats went skyward my joy went down
Gbm
Felt like I'd been dropped at the lost and found
A
Tried to stop it sliding but it's coming down
B
Like an avalanche

E
I'm not superstitious though I feared I was cursed
Gbm
You'd think that almost drowning would have quenched my thirst
A B
But you walked in the room and I knew at our first glance
With you I wanna dance

(A E B)
(Gbm A E B)
(A E B)

E
Terror often grips me and I want to run
Gbm
Like staring down the barrel of a loaded gun
A
Been a lot of things but I was never one
B
For making long term plans

E
Maybe you and I are the yang and yin
Gbm
I really wanna hate but my case is thin
A B
My brain wants out but my heart's now in your hands

So maybe we should dance

(A E B)
(Gbm A E B)
(A E B)

Acordes

