Angel, please, forgive me, I was wrong
Took a while, now I have learned
I made you cry for \ensuremath{\mathsf{me}}
Please, forgive me
                            Am
I know, you're the one I want for me
And for you I keep waiting here
You are the cutest thing on Earth
I've ever seen
I used to be only a sketch of \ensuremath{\mathsf{me}}
Thinking the world was centered on me
But I'm awake, and all I can say
Is my deepest only love is you
Let me love you, I want to do the right thing
For the very first time
Let our love through, it's healing all those wrong things
```

All my selfishness brought inside
And, please, forgive me, now I am here
I wanna make you happy
For the very first time
My little bird, gimme one kiss, I love you
Hold me now and make love to me
Let's both forget about the world
Make love to me
I see deep inside your eyes
For me you keep on breathing
We are both only two lovers
Loving each other
                                 Am
I wanna blend your love in my love and mix it all
I'll lull you to sleep, and your comforter is me
                         Am
I wanna wake up looking at your smile
So let's make love right now
For the very first time
