

Rancid - California Sun

Tom: F

California sun has sunk

Behind Anaheim hills here comes tonight

I was high on junk

And the warm winds of Santa Anna feel all right

Will every crimmin' hood make a bargain with the world

Seats are successive when you're shot to the curb

I spend my day in blindness, at night I get my vision

Dodgy, cause there are no one indecision

Cause it's wild

Wild wild wild wild

California sun has sunk

Behind Anaheim hills here comes tonight

I was high on junk

And the warm winds of Santa Anna feel all right

I get destructive outside obedience

 $\ensuremath{\mathbf{I}}$ am no longer respected in this new transition

I put into effect, my long time standard $% \left(1\right) =\left(1\right) \left(1\right$

Disastrous living, disastrous living!

Cause it's wild it's

When

When

Wild wild wild wild

California sun has sunk

Behind Anaheim hills here comes tonight

I was high on junk

And the warm winds of Santa Anna feel all right

Cause it's wild it's

When

Wild wild wild wild

California sun has sunk

Behind Anaheim hills here comes tonight

I was high on junk

And the warm winds of Santa Anna feel all right

California sun has sunk

Behind Anaheim hills here comes tonight

I was high on junk $\,$

And the warm winds of Santa Anna feel all right FEEL ALL RIGHT!!!
