

Rancid - Radio Havana

Tom: C

This is such a good and simple song.
I'm not sure about the little riff, but when I play it, it seems the same as the song. So just have fun and enjoy! =)

(You can make a slowly slide using your pecker before the first verse)

F C A G
El Diablo's like a soundtrack
F C A G
A concurrent playback
F C A G
'57 chevy with the radio on
C A G
It's a sad song
C A G
that goes on and on

C G
It's your fugitive from time
A F 2x
Radio Havana

F C A G
A friend just said you gotta make a choice
F C A G
He's got the leather skin and a velvet voice
F C A G
The New York Times read that it aint over yet
C A G
No, they can't forget
C A G
'Cause they'll never forget

C G
It's your fugitive from time
A F 2x
Radio Havana

F F
Yeah, I got it right (Yeah, I got it right)
C C
Going down tonight (Going down tonight)

F F
Oh, and where'd ya go (Oh, and where'd ya go)
C C
Going down below (Going down below)
(Little Riff)

F C A G
El Diablo's like a soundtrack
F C A G
A concurrent playback
F C A G
'57 chevy with the radio on
C A G
It's a sad song
C A G
that goes on and on YEAAAH!

Buenas tardes señoras y señores, bienvenidos a
Radio
Havana.
Hoy en nuestro programa, desde estados unidos le damo
la bienvenida
a la banda de punk rock de mayor exito: Rancid

F F
Yeah, I got it right (Yeah, I got it right)
C C
Going down tonight (Going down tonight)
F F
Oh, and where'd ya go (Oh, and where'd ya go)
C C
Going down below (Going down below)
(Little Riff)

(This last chorus is played by bass alone with the same notes: C, G, A and F, after bass for 2 times, the guitar starts playing together for 4 times).
It's your fugitive from time
Radio Havana

GGGG AAAA C

Acordes

