

Rascal Flatts - Why

Tom: G

(intro) G D C D G D C D

You must have been in a place so dark
 You couldn't feel the light
 Reaching for you through that stormy cloud
 Now here we are gathered in our little home town
 This can't be the way you meant to draw a crowd

Oh why, that's what I keep asking
 Was there anything I could have said or done
 Oh I had no clue you were masking a troubled soul
 God only knows what went wrong
 and why you'd leave the stage in the middle of a song

Now in my mind I'll keep you frozen as a 17 year old
 Rounding third to score the winning run
 You always played with passion no matter what the game
 When you took the stage you shined just like the sun

Oh why, that's what I keep asking
 Was there anything I could have said or done

Oh I had no clue you were masking a troubled soul
 God only knows what went wrong
 and why you'd leave the stage in the middle of a song

(interlude)
 Now the oak trees a swaying in the early autumn breeze
 The golden sun is shining on my face
 Tangled thoughts I hear the mocking bird sing
 This old world really ain't that bad a place

Oh why there's no comprehending
 And who am I to try judge or explain
 But I do have one burning question
 Who told you life wasn't worth the fight
 They were wrong
 They lied
 Now you're gone and we cry
 It's just not like you to walk away in the middle of a song

Your beautiful song
 Your absolutely beautiful song
