

Ray LaMontagne - For The Summer

Tom: Bb

(forma dos acordes no tom de G )

Capostrate na 3ª casa

Intro: A Em A Em

[Primeira Parte]

A Em G D A Em G D
Rollin' through these hills I've known I'd be comin?
A Em G D A Em G D
There ain't a man alive that likes to be alone
A Em G D A Em G D
It's been a while since I seen my lady smile
A Em G D A Em G D
Have I been have I been away so long

G D
I'm tired
G D
I am tired

A Em
Can I come home for the summer
D C
I could slow down for a little while
A Em
Get back to lovin' each other
D C A
Leave all those long and lonesome miles behind

( A Em G D )
( A Em G D )

A Em G D A

Em G D
Through the years I have learned some things worth the tellin'
A Em G D
And you'd be right in guessin' that each and every lesson they were
A Em G D
hard won
G D
I'm tired
G D
I am tired

A Em
Can I come home for the summer
D C
I could slow down for a little while
A Em
Get back to lovin' each other
D C A
Leave all those long and lonesome miles behind

( A Em G D )
( A Em G D )
( A Em G D )
( A Em G D )

A Em A Em
You'll follow her wherever she goes
A Em D C A
You love her and you just wanted to know
A Em A Em
That you'll follow her, you'll find a way
A Em D C A
'Cause you love her and you just wanted to know

Acordes

