Intro: E D C

[Riff 1]

E
Hello, Grammys!

E
Ladies and gentlemen, I'm gonna tell you 'bout

D
One of the many men, name is irrelevant, height is irrelevant

Am D C
He was a one out of a ten, I wish that I knew it then
I'm still recovering, uh

E
Truly I'm vulnerable, I love a sentiment

D
Quickly I opened up, I learned my lesson then

C
Thought I was safe again, thought he was innocent

Am D
I was so wrong

E G
I can't deny, I was stuck in a daze, a terrible phase

A
You was convincing though, very believable

A
The role that you played

E D
So I'll take this front row seat

C
And, baby, baby, you can go ahead

Am D E
Cry those Oscar winning tears

D
Popcorn and ice cream

C

Baby, baby, you can go ahead

Am D C B
Cry those Oscar winning tears, baby, hee

C
Say you can miss me with the bullshit, boy

B B7 C B7
I can see right through your tears, baby, your tears baby

C
Nine o'clock entertainment

B7
Oh, man, I wish I could tape it

Am
Sit down, no tissues

G D
No string section, no tiny violin

D
For the last time, I'm your audience

E D
I'll take this front-row seat

C Am D E D C B
And, baby, baby, you can go ahead and cry those

E
Would you go ahead

D
I need you to go ahead

G
So baby go, please go ahead

B7
Go ahead and just cry

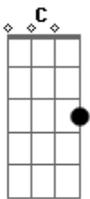

C
So would you go ahead

C
Cry those

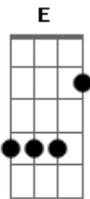

B
Oscar

B E
Winning tears
