Elizabeth Taylor (Taylor)

I need you to romance me, I need a

Giver, not a taker

(Ooh, it's what I need)

Yes, 'cause

I could love you

If I really wanted to

You could be, be my glass of wine

When the sunset, help me

Exhale all the excess

[Refrão]

Baby, bae, b-b-bae-b-b-baby, would you?

Would you make it all right? (Mm)

Or maybe that much better?

If you wanted, you could make it all

Worth it, worth it, worth it, worth it

Ooh, wh?n I see the sun rising, you

Make it that much bett?r

So I hope you're gonna make it all worth it

Worth it, worth it, worth it

Ooh, worth all of the time

I'm 'bout to give you, baby

So I hope you're gonna make it all

Worth it, worth it, worth it, worth it

Ooh, give all of the time

I should be working on me

So I hope you're gonna make it all

Worth it, worth it, worth it (hmm)
