

RBD - Tu Amor

```
Tom: Gb
                                                        Tu Amor...
                                                             Ebm
                                                        I will always be Bbm
                           Fbm
Mi amor I'm not sure of the right words to say
                                                           Db Bbm
                                                        Tu Amor...
Ebm Ab
   Db Bbm
                             Ebm
Maybe these simple words will di best to best explain
      Db
           Bbm
                                                        mean the world to me
What I feel in my heart
                                                         Fm
                                                        Esteras siempre en mi corazon
   Ebm
           Ab
What I feel more each day
                                                              Gb
                                                        You're the one in my soul
Fm
How to make you see
                                                         Gbm Ab
                                                        And I live for...
                                                        Db Bbm Ebm Ab Fm
tu amor
How to let you know
                                                         - amur
    Gbm
How to say how to say how I love you so
         Bbm
                                                        You're the one that I need in my arms
With words you understand
                                                           Gb
                                                        Believe me these words I say
 Bbm
Words that get right through to your heart
                                                           Ab
                                                        are words that come straight from my heart
Gbm Ab
Here's the place to start
                                                                Bbm
                                                        How do I make you believe
Chorus:
                                                                Gb
                                                                                     Gbm
 Db Bbm
                                                        Nothing else means as much as what you mean to me?
Tu Amor...
                                                        Db Bbm Fbm Ab (3x)
I will always be (Tú eres la única en mi alma)
   Db Bbm
                                                        Tú eres el único en mi alma
Tu Amor...
Ebm Ab
                                                        (Yo te quiero)
                                                        Yo te quiero
mean the world to me
                                                        (te adoro)
 Fm
                                                        Te adoro
Esteras siempre en mi corazon
                                                        (Tus lábios)
                                                        Tus lábios
   Gb
You're the one in my soul
                                                        (Tus ojos)
 Gbm Ab
                                                        Tus ojos
And I live for...
                                                                  Ab Bb
 Db Bbm Ebm Ab Db Bbm Ebm Ab
                                                        (Mi amor) Mi amor...
tu amor
                                                        Chorus:
       Bbm
  Db
                         Fbm
                                                          Eb Cm
                                                        Tu Amor...
Mi amor love you more with each look in your eyes
 Db Bbm Ebm
                                                           Fm
Maybe these simple words will do best to best describe
                                                        I will always be
     Db
            Bbm
                                                         Eb Cm
What I feel in my heart
                                                        Tu Amor...
      Ebm
                                                             Fm
What I'll feel for all time
                                                        mean the world to me
How to make you see
                                                        Esteras siempre en mi corazon
                                                               Ab
                                                        You're the one in my soul
How to let you know
              Gbm
                    Ab
                                                         Abm Bb
How to say how to say how I need you so
                                                        And I live for...
   Fm
                                                        Eb
With words you understand
                                                        tu amor
Bbm
Words that get through to your soul
                                                        Eb Cm Fm Bb
     Gbm
                                                        Tu amor...
Words that will let you know
                                                        Tu amor...
                                                        Tu amor...
Chorus:
                                                        Tu amor...
         Bbm
 Db
                                                        Tu amor...
                                                       Tu amor...
```

Acordes

