

Rebecca Parris - Lush Life

Tom: Gb

E7 A E7 Fdim A
I used to visit all the very gay places
E7 Fdim A
Those come what may places
E7 A D A Cdim A
Where one relaxes on the axis of the wheel of life
Fdim A Fdim A
To get the feel of life from jazz and cocktails

The girls I knew had sad and sullen gray faces

With distant gay traces
E7 A D A Cdim A
That used to be there you could see where they'd been washed away
Fdim A Fdim A
By too many through the day twelve o'clock tales
A7 Dm A7 Dm Dm Gm Dm
Then you came along with your siren of song to tempt me to madness
A7 Dm A7 Dm Dm Gm

I thought for a while that your poignant smile was tinged with the sadness
Gdim Fdim
Of a great love for me

Gdim Fdim E Dm F
Ah yes! I was wrong again, I was wrong

Now life is awful again, a trough full of hearts could only be a bore

A week in Paris could ease the bite of it, all I care is to smile in spite of it

I'll forget you, I will, while yet you are still burning inside my brain
F Fdim Bb F7
Romance is mush, stifling those who strive
Bb Cdim Bb Gm Gdim
So I'll live a lush life in some small dive

And there I'll be, while I rot with the rest
