

Renato Russo - Old Friend

Tom: C
Intro: C D G G G G

G D Em Em
Everytime I've lost another lover
C C D D
I call up my old friend
C D
And say let's get together
C D
I'm under the weather
C D G
Another love has suddenly come to an end
G D Em Em
And he listens as I tell him my sad story
C C D D
And wonders at my taste in men
C D
And we wonder why I do it
C D
And the pain of getting through it
C D G G7
And he laughs and says: "You'll do it again !"
C D G
And we sit in a bar and talk till two
F G C C C
'Bout life and love as old friends do
D D G
And tell each other what we've been through
C D Bm Em
How love is rare, life is strange
C D Bm Em
Nothing lasts, people change
(Intro)
G D Em Em
And I ask him if his life is ever lonely

C C D D
And if he ever feels despair
C D
And he says he's learned to love it
C D
'Cause that's really a part of it
C D G G7
And it helps him feel the good times when they're there
(Refrão)
G D Em Em
And we wonder if I'll live with any lover
C C D D
Or spend my life alone
C D
And the bartender is dozing
C D G Ab
So we figure that I'll make it on my own
Db Eb Ab
But we'll meet in the year we're sixty-two
Gb Ab Db4 Db Db
And travel the world as old friends do
Eb Eb Ab
And tell each other what we've been through
Db Eb Cm Fm
How love is rare, life is strange
Db Eb Cm Fm
Nothing lasts, people change
Db Eb Cm Fm
Love is rare, life is strange
Db Eb Cm Fm
Nothing lasts, people... change...
(Db Eb Ab4 Ab Ab Ab)

Acordes

