

Reuben And The Dark - Standing Still

Intro: G

G
Well away from the city they carried my life

G
I'd grown tired of the way that the day treats the night

G
And no matter how far I ran

G
No matter how far I ran

G
Follow the railroad the only thing dry

C
The path does narrow as angela's eyes

G
No matter how far I ran

Here's where I belong

G
I was born by the water the wealth of the sea

C
And infants awaken with ominous dreams

G
And I traveled the world till the waltzin the streets

Tom:

D
No matter how far I ran

Am
Oh may my soul be found

G
On the tail of a hurricane, the trick of the trade

D
I stay angry at angels that stand in the way

C
Who wore a halo of smoke from a passing train

G
Now the seat at my table's been taken away

G
I'm the same man now that I was when I changed

C
See, the birth of a star is a death of it's fate

G
Rise up like the water and fall like the rain a lung
