

Richard Ashcroft - Find Another Reason

And baby
               tom:
                                                              The miracles they come so fast
Intro: G C G Gm Am G
                                                                          Gm
                                                              You're passing every chase
[Primeira Parte]
                                                              In the magic in your mind
If all of this is energy
                                                              [Refrão]
Never ending symphony
Am G
Echo in the time
                                                              Ending time
                                                              You might find another reason
                                                             Gm Am G
Find another reason to live
Then baby
In our eyes I wanna stay
                                                             I am on your side
Reflecting what I want to say
Am G
Now I see my crimes
                                                              So let's find another
                                                               Gm Am G
C G
If all of this losing street
                                                              Find another reason to live
                                                              [Solo] C G Gm Am G C G Gm Am G C G Gm Am G
Life just fool a misery
 Am G
I think I understand
                                                              [Verso 3]
But baby
C G Within you I can feel dream
                                                              If all of it's clear to me
  Gm
                                                                               Gm
Never ending frequency
                                                             The crystal waters running free
 Am G
                                                                              G
All the sound sublime
                                                             The moutains of your soul
                                                              G [Refrão]
                                                             Baby
                                                              The words are no longer out of me
Ending time
                                                                     Gm
                                                             A endless pages some to sing
You might find another reason
                                                              Am
                                                             Something to delight
Gm Am G
Find another reason to live
                                                             Honey
I am on your side
                                                              C
G
So let's find another
                                                              If all of this is energy
                                                                           Gm
 Gm Am G
                                                             Never ending frequency
Find another reason to live
                                                             Echo in the time
G
                                                             Baby
                                                                      G
[Verso 2]
                                                              Cave is where I need to be
                                                               Gm Am
                                                             And I can out again whatever I like
You walk in all get ceremony
                                                             Baby
I wonder morning so be
                                                              [Final] C G Gm Am G C G Gm Am G
Don't you feel divine
